

Meals and services

American breakfasts at the Best Western/River North Hotel are included in the price of the room. The annual banquet will be held on Saturday, May 11. Registrants are welcome at the hotel hospitality suite and receptions given. The cost of the field trip to Isle a la Cache and Starved Rock has been included in the registration fee. Other lunches and dinners are the responsibility of the participant.

Lodging

Conference sessions will be held at The Newberry Library, 60 West Walton Street. Hotel accomodation has been arranged at the Best Western/River North Hotel at 125 West Ohio Street, just a few blocks south of the Library. Room rates are $69 for a single or $79 for a double which includes a full American breakfast, parking and a spa. You are responsible for making your hotel reservations. You may call collect to the Best Western/River North at 312-476-0800 or contact them by mail at 125 W. Ohio Street, Chicago, Illinois 60610. If you wish to share a room, indicate the name of the person you will be sharing with, or indicate your willingness to share with another. You must also mention that you are attending the French Colonial Historical Society meeting in order to receive this special room rate. Reservations must be made by April 1st.

Acknowledgements

The Society expresses its gratitude both to The Newberry Library and to Mr. Barry MacLean, co-sponsors of the meeting and exhibit.

Conference Chairman: David Buisseret
(The Newberry Library)
Program Coordinator: Tina Reithmaier
(The Newberry Library)

- 1) The Newberry Library: 60 West Walton Street.
- 2) The Best Western / River North: 125 West Ohio

Transportation

Two airports serve Chicago: O'Hare International, which is northwest of the city, and Midway, located southwest of it. Both airports are about 40 minutes from the center of the city; cabs and airport buses are available at both. There is also a CTA Rapid Transit System that you can take downtown from O'Hare. Train and bus terminals, located in the center of the city, also serve Chicago.

For further information contact:
David Buisseret 312-943-9090 (daytime)
Charles Balesi 708-674-9707

Notes

17th Annual Meeting of The French Colonial Historical Society

17<sup>ème</sup> Congrès de la Société d'histoire coloniale française

The Newberry Library
Chicago, Illinois
May 8-12, 1991

Wednesday, May 8th

Registration will begin in the evening at the Best Western/River North Hotel, Hospitality Suite, 7:30 pm.

Thursday, May 9th

Registration all day at The Newberry Library, where the sessions will be held in the East Room

8:00 am to 10:30 am

Session I Nouvelle France I
Chair: Carl Ekberg (Illinois State University)

A.J.B. Johnston (Nova Scotia), "From port de pêche to ville fortifiée: the evolution of urban Louisbourg, 1713-1758"

Dale Miquelon (University of Saskatchewan), "The compact colony policy revisited: the tenacity of an idea"

Serge Courville (Université Laval), "Tradition or modernity? The Canadian seigneurie in the Durham era: a new perspective"

Rémi Mayrand (Gouvernement du Québec, Commission de Toponymie), "The illustrated dictionary of Quebec place names"

David Thackery (The Newberry Library), "Sources for French-Canadian genealogy"

10:45 am to 12:00 am

Session II Outre-Mer
Chair: Cornelius Jaenen (Université d'Ottawa)

Glenn Ames (The University of Toledo), "Damiao Viera, S.J.: primitive cartography, private profit, and French ambitions in Asia, c. 1670"

E.P. Fitzgerald (Carleton University), "The mystery of the Mosul Cession: the oil factor in France's policy towards the partition of the Middle East after the First World War"

Alan Hager (The Newberry Library) "The map of new Paraguay; a crisis in Jesuitism"

12:30 pm to 2:00 pm Lunch

2:00 pm to 4:00 pm

Session III Afrique I
Chair: Charles Balesi (Chicago Public Schools)

David Prochaska (The University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana), "Making Algeria French and unmaking French Algeria"

William Hoisington (The University of Illinois at Chicago), "France and Islam: the Haut Comité Méditerranéen and French North Africa, 1936-1940"

Douglas Porch (The Citadel, Charleston), "The myths of the Foreign Legion"

4:00 pm to 5:30 pm

This time is available to view the exhibits in the Library's two galleries.

5:30 pm

Cocktail reception and welcoming address from David Buisseret of The Newberry Library

Friday, May 10th

8:00 am to 12:00 pm

Registration at The Newberry Library, where the sessions will be held in the East Room

8:00 am to 12:00 am

Session IV Les Grands Lacs
Chair: David Buisseret (The Newberry Library)

Russell Magnaghi (Northern Michigan University), "France's geographical knowledge of the midcontinent and West, 1665-1763"

Fred Krause (Saint Joseph, Michigan), "Early Jesuit Missions in Michigan"

Dennis Au (Center for French Colonial Studies), "Maps and archaeology: the French colonial settlement pattern in the River Raisin community in southeastern Michigan"

Robert W. Karrow (The Newberry Library), "The mythical islands of Lake Superior"

Win Briggs (Milan, Italy), "Mysteries of French Chicago: the fictional French fort" and "Where was the Mission of the Guardian Angel?"

John F. Swenson (Glencoe, Illinois), "Where was the original Chicago settlement?"

John Aubrey (The Newberry Library), "Some problems in the early history of Chicago"

1:00 pm to 8:00 pm

Field trip to Isle a la Cache and Starved Rock; refreshments served at Starved Rock

Saturday, May 11th

Registration all day at The Newberry Library, where sessions will be held in the East Room

8:00 am to 12:30 pm

Session V La Louisiane et les Caraïbes
Chair: Patricia Galloway (Mississippi Department of Archives and History)

Michael James Foret (University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point), "Red over White: Indians, deserters and French colonial Louisiana"

Gregory Waselkov (University of South Alabama), "The present state of the excavations of Old Mobile"

Lorraine Gosselin Harrison (Odessa, Texas), "The history of Algiers, Louisiana: the Gosselin property"

Robert Forster (Johns Hopkins University), "Two eighteenth-century sugar plantations: Habitation Fleury in Saint-Domingue and Worthy Park in Jamaica"

10:45 am to 12:30 pm

Session VI Afrique II
Chair: William Shorrock (Cleveland State University)

Mike Heffernan (Loughborough University of Technology), "Utopia and Empire: French images of Algeria in the early colonial period"

Phyllis Martin (Indiana University), "Leisure and the making of French colonial society in Brazzaville"

David Gardinier (Marquette University), "American Press views of France's Black African policy, 1958-1960"

12:30 am to 2:00 pm Lunch

2:00 pm to 4:00 pm

Session VII Nouvelle France II
Chair: Joseph Peyser (Indiana University at South Bend)

Carl Ekberg (Illinois State University), "The Illinois Country: settlement-patterns and agriculture-French, Canadian, or sui generis?"

James Hunter (Huron Museum, Ontario), "The seventeenth-century 'Taunton' map of the Great Lakes"

Cornelius Jaenen (Université d'Ottawa), "One cabin, two fires: French sovereignty and native nationhood in New France"

6:00 pm Annual Banquet at C'Est si Bon, 60 E. Walton Street.

Master of Ceremonies, Charles Balesi, President of the French Colonial Historical Society; keynote address by Barry MacLean, co-sponsor of the meeting and exhibit.

The Society will hold its annual business meeting immediately following the banquet.

Sunday, May 12th

Breakfast, Best Western/River North Hotel, followed by departure.