

Welcome to New Haven

New Haven was founded in 1638 by a group of London Puritans led by Theophilus Eaton and John Davenport. Political privileges were limited to members of the Congregational church, and magistrates ruled without trial by jury because that institution was not mentioned in the Bible. New Haven also provided refuge for the regicides Whalley, Goffe, and Dixwell—who lent their names to several of the city's central avenues. New Haven Colony joined Connecticut in 1664. The Collegiate School, which had opened in Saybrook in 1701, moved to New Haven in 1718 and changed its name to Yale College in honor of a gift from London merchant Elihu Yale.

New Haven, like most American cities, contains a variety of ethnic communities. Wooster Square, not far from the central business district, is famous for its pizza – Pepe's and Sally's have passionate adherents. We also recommend the following restaurants near the hotel: Amalfi Grille and Hot Tomato's (Italian), Caffè Adulis and Lalibela (Ethiopian), Pika Tapas (Spanish), Istanbul Cafe (Turkish), Playwright (Irish), Union League Cafe (French), and Willoughby's Coffee House. (See the guide in your packet.) And you really should try Louis' Lunch (263 Crown Street), a unique place –perhaps the birthplace of the hamburger—that broils their fresh and tasty burgers on vertical cast iron grills. If you have any spare time, please stroll around the beautiful Yale campus and visit the Yale Art Gallery and the Yale Center for British Art. We hope your visit will be a memorable one.
